

Bio
Tom Simon
FBI Special Agent
Honolulu, Hawaii

Special Agent Tom Simon joined the Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1995. He currently investigates high-yield investment frauds, major embezzlements, and traditional white collar crimes affecting Hawaii's residents and small business community. In addition to his investigations, Tom also serves as the press spokesperson for the Honolulu FBI office and is a regular fixture on local news programs and radio talk shows.

Prior to transferring to the FBI Honolulu office in 2009, Tom worked at the FBI Chicago office for 14 years where he investigated financial crimes, counter-terrorism, and political corruption. Following the 9-11 attacks, he was assigned to a team of Special Agents who dismantled several Islamic charities funneling money to Al Qaeda and other extremist groups. Tom's final case in Chicago was the investigation of Illinois Governor Rod Blagojevich which culminated in convicting the Governor of attempting to sell the U.S. Senate seat formerly held by U.S. President Barack Obama.

Tom earned a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Clemson University and is a non-practicing certified public accountant. He worked at KPMG as a Forensic Accountant for three years before joining the FBI.
